Tarandowah Results

Eight guys from Michigan made the trip to Tarandowah Links, east of London and joined 8 players from Ontario for a wind-blown round earlier this month. Brett McBride (Pigeon, Mich) posted the winning score (34 points--2 over par) with Grant Gulych 2nd at 31 points--5 over. Brett picked up a skin on # 9, while Grant finished strong by carding 3 skins in the closing holes at #15, 16 & 18. Other skin winners were Chris Boka #3, Jack Black # 4, Joe Janosky #7, and George Harris #14.

Other prize money winners were: Vito Cisternino---3rd low gross 25 points ( +11); Joe Janosky was the low net winner ---35.5 net points (28 actual points); 2nd low net went to George Harris...34.5 net points; 3rd low net Dennis Babcock...32.5 net points; 4th low net was won by Michael Hunter 32 net points (23 actual)

Special recognition goes to Grant Gulych, who played and ran the tournament, despite learning days earlier that his father had suffered a stroke. Our condolences go to our friend Grant as he and his family go forward. His father passed away a few days later.

The next event is in Michigan at Lake Forest GC in Ann Arbor, Michigan on Saturday, August 5. Yes, it's a Saturday---a departure from our usual Sunday tournament. And for many, it's the last opportunity to earned Kelly Cup qualifying points. The entry deadline is this Saturday. For more information, go to our website or email Brett McBride or Brent Davies the Tournament Directors:
