

SEPTEMBER 2017

- Prepared by Charles Henry

Lake Forest Results

What a turnout. Twenty five players teed it up in Ann Arbor for the final regular season event of 2017. The event, which preceded the USGTF's Central Region Championship on the same track, was one of the best attended events in many years. Players came from Kentucky, Cincinnati, and Toronto to enjoy the camaraderie and competition.

Brett McBride (Pigeon, Mich) posted the winning score (40 points---4 under par) with Matt Smith (Columbus, Ohio) finishing a strong 2nd at even par. (36 points)

Vito Cisternino (Woodbridge, Ont) was next at 33 points but was awarded the top net prize by tour rules....with 41 net points. Grant Gulych (St. Thomas, Ont) received the 3rd low gross prize at 32 points. Jack Deming (Hudsonville, Mich) had the 5th best score of the day at 31 gross points but tied with Vito for 1st low net. Three players tied at 4th low gross with 30 points.....6 over par....Dennis Babcock (Chatham, Ont), Jeremie Lopez (Champion Gates, Fla), and Daniel Estevan (Toronto area). George Harris (London, Ont) and Chris Boka (Canton, Mich) tied for 3rd place low net with 37.5 points. Rounding out the scoring in a tie for 5th low net were Jim Peters (Newport, KY) Joe Janosky (Royal Oak, Mich), and Bob Richardson (Keswick, Ont)

Future Schedules

The next event is the Kelly Cup which will be played September 10th & 11th at Solitude Golf Links near Port Huron, Michigan. Unfortunately, Team Canada could only field a squad of 8 players but the competition will certainly be keen and spirited. Team Michigan currently holds the cup.

Look for the Kelly Cup results in the October newsletter. The 2018 schedule will hopefully be released later this year.
